

Leave the the Wisconsin Law that currently resides on the books as is. Since the aboption of this consumer protection law our family no longer receives phone calls soliciting goods that I or most people have no interest in. If they wish to advertise then they should do so without interrupting my privacy in my own home over a phone service that I pay for!